Listening transcript — Part A

Kevin: IT helpdesk, Kevin speaking.

Nadia: Hi Kevin, it's Nadia in Marketing. We've moved to the third floor, and I can't print anything. My laptop keeps sending documents to the old printer on the first floor.

Kevin: OK, let's add the third-floor printer. First, could you click the Start button and open Settings? It's the small gear icon.

Nadia: OK, I've got the Settings window.

Kevin: Now select Devices, and then click Printers and scanners in the menu on the left.

Nadia: Right. There's a button that says Add a printer.

Kevin: Yes, click that. The laptop will search the network. It usually takes about thirty seconds.

Nadia: It's found three printers. Which one is mine?

Kevin: Choose the one called Floor 3 Colour. Then click Add device.

Nadia: Done. It says Ready.

Kevin: Great. Next, just tick the box that says Set as default, so that all your documents go to this printer automatically.

Nadia: OK, it's ticked.

Kevin: Finally, print a test page to check that everything works.

Nadia: It's printing now. Thanks, Kevin!

Listening transcript — Part B

Grace: Hello, and welcome to the Media Lab. I'm Grace, and I manage the lab. Let me tell you what we have here.

Grace: There are twenty computers in this room. Each one has a 27-inch screen and a powerful graphics card, so you can edit videos and 3-D images quickly. All the computers have the same software, so you can use any desk.

Grace: Along the back wall, we have six video cameras for filming projects. You can borrow a camera for up to three days, but you have to book it online first. In the small room on the left, there are four sets of virtual reality goggles. Students usually use them for game design projects.

Grace: The lab is open from nine in the morning to eight in the evening, Monday to Saturday. Finally, please save your work on the university server, not on the computers, because we clean all the computers every Sunday night. Any questions?

Instruction email to Sophie

You are an IT support technician. Sophie, a trainee in the HR department, needs to back up her work files to an external hard drive but does not know how. Write an email to Sophie explaining the steps, using the notes below. In your email you must use:
- imperatives with sequence words;
- at least one softener (could you…?, just);
- at least one sentence with two objects (plug … into …, unplug … from …);
- at least one reason or purpose (to…, so that…, because…).
Follow the standard layout for an email giving instructions: From / To / Date / Subject, a greeting, It should be quite easy to …, the steps with First / Then / Next / After that / Finally, a reminder (Don't forget to … when you've finished.), then Best wishes and your name, position and department.
Write 80–100 words (do not count the From, To, Date and Subject lines).

- plug the external drive into a USB port on your laptop
- open File Explorer / select the folders you want to back up
- drag them onto the drive icon to copy them
- check that the files are on the drive
- right-click on the drive icon / select 'Eject' / unplug the drive from the laptop
- reminder: lock the drive in your drawer when you've finished (so that nobody can take it)

Speaking

2.5 points

Các bài mẫu là gợi ý tham khảo, không phải đáp án đúng duy nhất. Part 1 có câu hỏi mở và không có bài mẫu trong bộ dữ liệu.

Part 1 (S1)

Answer the three questions. Speak for 30–45 seconds for each question.

Suggested time: 45 seconds per question.

1. How much storage does your phone or laptop have, and how much of it is free? Say the numbers and units clearly, for example sixty-four gigabytes or one point five terabytes.

2. What multimedia equipment do you have at home, for example speakers, a webcam or headphones? What do you use each one for? Use for + noun, to + verb or so that.

3. How do you save a document in a new folder on your computer? Give the instructions using imperatives and sequence words (first, then, next, finally).

Part 2 (S2)

Give instructions for using a computer. Speak for 1–1.5 minutes.

Suggested time: 90 seconds.

Your grandmother has a new laptop. Explain how to change the desktop background to one of her own photos. Use imperatives, sequence words (first, then, next, after that, finally) and at least one softener (could you…?, just).

- right-click on an empty part of the desktop
- select 'Personalise'
- click 'Background' / choose 'Picture'
- click 'Browse' / find the photo in the Pictures folder
- click 'Choose picture' / close the window

Required language: Imperatives with sequence words: First, … Then, … Next, … After that, … Finally, …; Softeners: could you…?, just.

Sample response

> It's easy to change the background, Grandma. First, could you right-click on an empty part of the desktop? Not on an icon, just on the picture behind them. A menu appears. Then select 'Personalise' from the menu. A new window opens. Next, click 'Background' on the left and choose 'Picture' from the list. After that, click the 'Browse' button and find your photo. Your photos are usually in the Pictures folder, so just double click on that folder and select the photo you like. Finally, click 'Choose picture'. Now you can see your photo on the desktop. If you like it, just close the window. If you don't like it, repeat the steps and choose another photo.

Part 3 (S3)

Deal with the situation. Speak for 1–1.5 minutes.

Suggested time: 90 seconds.

Your friend owns a small café. She wants to show music videos on a big TV and play music through speakers, and she wants customers to see the café's menu on the TV screen too. Explain what equipment she needs, how to connect each item and why each one is needed. Use sentences with two objects (plug … into …, connect … to …) and reason or purpose (to…, so that…, because…, for…).

- a small media player: plug it into the TV's HDMI socket / to play music videos from the internet
- two speakers: connect them to the media player / so that customers at the back can hear the music
- a laptop: connect it to the TV with a cable / for showing the café's menu
- an extension cable: plug it into the wall socket / because there is only one socket near the TV

Required language: Sentences with two objects: plug … into …, connect … to …; Reason and purpose: to + verb, so that + clause, because + clause, for + noun / -ing.

Sample response

> I think you need four things. First, buy a small media player and plug it into the TV's HDMI socket. You need it to play music videos from the internet. Second, get two speakers and connect them to the media player, so that customers at the back of the café can hear the music clearly. The TV speakers are too quiet for a big room. Third, you can connect your laptop to the TV with a cable for showing the café's menu between the videos. Finally, you need an extension cable, because there is only one wall socket near the TV. Plug the extension cable into the wall socket, and then plug the TV, the media player and the speakers into it. It's quite cheap, and it's easy to set up.
